I'm not sure exactly your case, but usually that is a city tax on property you own, such as machinery, equipment, or computers. I don't believe it has to do with the building. However, you should call and find out for sure. I paid that once for my business and I believe it was around $70 dollars. However, we don't have any large machines or equipment.

I would call them. They are usually pretty helpful.

Let me know what you find out.

Quick question

did you know why we paid unsecured property tax bill, does not the property owner who should paid it?
